

Travel Assistance Services

We bring added value to our group life programs by providing access to 24-hour basic emergency travel services.

Active U.S. employees covered under our group life insurance policies, and their spouses and dependents, can access the services when traveling for business or pleasure 100 or more miles from home. There is no additional cost to your benefit program.

The services are provided by Global Rescue and offer direct and immediate access to medical and security experts. Operating with medical advisory support from world class physicians, Global Rescue delivers potentially life-saving services and features unique to basic emergency travel services.
